

28 South River Street Wellesley, MA

This is a custom, renovated spacious central entry colonial home boasting extraordinary views of the Charles River and Elm Bank. As you enter the open foyer and living area, you will notice craftsmanship at its best. A state of the art kitchen, tremendous counter and cabinet space, top of the line appliances and radiant heated floor. Bring the outdoors in. The first floor office and/or den area, and family room, fitted with floor to ceiling La Cantina folding doors with retractable screens, open to an expansive Ipe wood deck that overlooks all the well manicured private space one expects in a home of this calibre. And, the built-in Lion stainless steel barbecue, with granite counters, compliment a contemporary lifestyle that makes outdoor relaxation and dining a can't wait-to-get-home must. Imagine bringing the outdoors in with the flick of a switch. This picturesque home is made for entertainment in a very casual or formal environment, and inviting lifestyle

