

23 Peninsula Road Harvard, MA 01451

Prime waterfront scenic setting on 330 acre Bare Hill Pond. Large private dock & excellent direct access for boating, swimming, fishing, skating. A spectacular newly built contemporary home nestled on a wooded peninsula, surrounded by stunning water views. The house is an architectural marvel, designed by an award-winning Boston architect w/open multi-story spaces & custom windows that frame lake views that can be seen from anywhere in the house. The home is exquisitely detailed in the minimalist style with European nuances. Multiple decks & balconies surround the house for your morning coffee or sunset cocktail. The finest materials have been used in the construction & features Italian modern kitchen with slick white cabinetry & Quartz counters., All rms on the second floor have private balconies. There are superb spa-like bathrooms w/skylights, & ample closets. The LL grand space w/porcelain floors & sliders to the beach, office + full bath. Devine living experience!

