

120 Holden Road

Paxton, MA 01612

Prepare to step beyond the ordinary when you walk into this custom built multi-level cape style home in desirable Paxton! A wonderful blend of tradition with contemporary upgrades makes this house a truly special place to call home. The custom original wood work and hardwood flooring brings the "traditional style" to the front to back living room and bedrooms. The spacious updated eat-in kitchen with granite, stainless steel and pantry shows the "contemporary". A 23 x 21 family room is sure to be the place to gather. Four bedrooms with optional first floor master and 2 updated full bathrooms create flexible living space. Two sunrooms overlook the picturesque back yard. Lower level is ready to be finished if you need more space! A dedicated driveway brings you to the independent 2 story barn with loft, heat, electric and slate roof. Major updates to the house include septic, electric, roof, exterior paint, boiler, kitchen, bathrooms and main level windows new in 2 yrs.
