

396 Grafton Street Shrewsbury, MA 01545

Set far off the road on a lovely tree lined street, this custom built colonial on almost 2 acres of land has so much to offer. Relax at the end of your day on the oversized deck overlooking the very private wooded backyard with inground pool. The beamed great room with gorgeous HW floors and skylights flows seamlessly into the bright kitchen with granite counter tops, stainless steel appliances and eat-in area. Large living room with charming fireplace opens up to the family room with bay window and French doors. The home features an elegant mahogany study with built-ins and pocket doors. Heated sunroom with cathedral ceiling offers a great space for entertaining. A formal dining room completes the first floor. The second floor boasts a huge master suite with amazing walk in closet, spa-like master bath and an additional sitting area/dressing room/nursery. Three additional bdrms and full bath. A truly beautiful property. Convenient to major routes.
