

57 Whitcomb Avenue Littleton, MA 01460

Welcome to this sweet well maintained home. Recently replaced all windows and back door. Entertain from the bright open kitchen, to the dining room, all open to the living room. Family room has a large rustic stone hearth. LL with electric heat zone, and the half bath, and laundry, plus a work area for that handyman. Hard wood on the upper level, and new carpet in the lower. Beautiful lush gardens, complete with a Goldfish Pond, fill the view from every sunny window. Good commuter access to Rt 2, and 495, and the train station to Boston is 2.3 miles, Schools in Littleton have very small class sizes, and a relatively new High School. Great town owned electric company. You will enjoy Nashoba Valley Skiing, various conservation and walking areas, great shopping at The Point, farmers markets, and the fact that this town maintains that local down home country feel without sacrificing progress.
