Newton, MA 02464

Its time to finally live in an amazing Carriage House. Enter through a barn door into an enclosed porch and into an incredible entertainment space. The Master Suite, 2nd bedroom and family bath are off of the large entry space/sitting area. The third bedroom is presently used as an office. A wood fireplace is a focal point of the living room and the dining room circles around to the bright white kitchen with peninsula. A convenient laundry closet is on this floor as well. This home boasts closets and more closets. There is a lower level which includes more closets, another storage area with utilities and a cedar closet. This level leads directly into the tandem garage for 2. Chestnut Grove Condominium Complex is adjacent to a park and tennis courts, a bike path, stores, restaurants, shopping areas and public transportation. Historic Echo Bridge over the Charles River and the Upper Falls Antique Market is right down the street.
