

11 Apple Tree Hill Hopkinton, MA 01748

Welcome home to your light filled condo! You enter into a foyer leading to a large, open plan living and dining room. Not only is the living room bright due to the slider onto the patio, but you also have a feature wood burning fireplace complete with decorative shiplap - perfect for entertaining both inside and out. The modern kitchen boasts white cabinetry, stainless appliances and a pantry. Upstairs are two large bedrooms with plenty of storage which share an upgraded bathroom. No going downstairs with laundry, as it's conveniently located on the second floor! All living areas have laminate flooring and the condo has been painted in soothing, light tones. Outside is some private space with storage alongside large communal grounds. You are in a great location being less than a mile away from the 495 while also within a mile of the Berry Acres Conservation Area with 25 acres of trails. Call now for a showing and bring your checkbook! This gem of a condo won't last long!

