

21 Summer Street Rehobth, MA 02769

Private estate in historic Rehoboth on 13 acres with the potential for additional 2 lots for a total of 25 acres for the right buyer. Custom built 5000 square foot home with authentic 18th century details including wide pine board flooring, solid hand-crafted ceiling beams, brick walk-in fireplace, plus additional fireplace in formal living room. Unique property with space for family gatherings and entertaining inside and out. Open concept kitchen, family room and keeping room, formal dining room and living room, plus game room for kids. Beautiful master bedroom and bath with picture window facing gorgeous views. Attention to detail throughout estate including custom barn, natural ponds, beautiful mature gardens, large field for horses or other animals, and large workshop. Privacy is key to this location with no other houses within view. Estate is surrounded by fields and woods. This idyllic, serene, beautiful home is an easy commute to Providence or Boston, yet feels a world away.

