

70 York Street

Cambridge, MA 02141

4 Bed | 3.5 Bath

Here's your chance to snatch up a detached single family home with brick exterior... and parking! With two kitchens, this property almost functions as a 2-family. Perfect for an owner occupant with extended family, or an investor looking for an income property, or even a developer looking to bring the place to its highest and best use. Lower level has the classic Cambridge feel with a modern twist, with an updated granite-and-stainless chef's kitchen and large finished basement. Head up the dramatic staircase to the upper level with the second kitchen, full bath, bedroom, and expansive master bedroom with high ceilings and sliders opening onto a deck with views of the Boston Skyline. Recent updates include new mini-splits for AC, new rubber roof, and interior painting. Bring your finishing touches and truly make it your own. Located right across from Donnelly Field on a tree lined street, and near Inman and Kendall, you can get anywhere you want to be in minutes.
