

1131 Hyde Park Avenue

Boston, MA 02136

Handsomely detailed SEVEN bed Queen Ann Victorian situated on over 1/4 of an acre in the heart of Hyde Park. This elegant home was constructed by famous local architect Charles Haley and is located in the 1893 Norfolk County Gazette coined area of "Haleyville." The original artisan woodwork, high ceilings, grand staircase, exquisite stained-glass windows, three gorgeous fireplaces, and spacious entryways are some of the fine period details of this home. Featuring a variety of new updates including all new windows, new heating system with a high efficiency Lochinvar boiler, new decking and railings for the front porch and back deck, and a new carriage house roof. A vibrant neighborhood and community with Ron's Ice Cream, Sherrin Woods, McGann Playground, and Hyde Park Library magnify the distinctiveness of this home. Easily accessible to the Blue Hills & Stony Brook Reservations, George Wright, bike paths, and public transportation. Come make this grand estate your forever home!
